CAF America Recognizes Industry Leaders with the CAF America Excellence in International Philanthropy Award
E4E Relief and the Prince's Foundation are the 2022 Distinguished Recipients

Alexandria, VA. -- January 19, 2022 - CAF America, the leader in international grantmaking, recognizes two industry leaders for their outstanding international philanthropic achievements at the organization's 7th annual Celebration of International Philanthropy. E4E Relief and The Prince's Foundation have each been chosen to receive the CAF America Excellence in International Philanthropy Award. The Celebration of these awardees is typically held annually at an event in Orlando, Florida; however, this event has been postponed due to the recent surge in COVID-19 cases in the United States. We look forward to presenting the award to our recipients at a future ceremony.

As recipients of the CAF America Excellence in International Philanthropy Award, E4E Relief and the Prince's Foundation join past honorees as organizations that authentically uses their charitable initiatives to have a profound impact to better the lives of others on a global scale.

For 20 years, E4E Relief has been the leading provider of charitable employee relief funds, rapidly responding to employee disaster and hardships on behalf of corporations. As an independent public charity, E4E Relief empowers global companies and employees to provide, and receive, meaningful financial relief when it's needed most, creating a strong sense of engagement and community. In the past 5 years, E4E Relief has awarded more than $215 million in charitable grants, supporting relief efforts for over 5 million people worldwide.

"On behalf of our clients, E4E Relief has a tremendous partnership with CAF America to provide compliant grants to employees worldwide at their time of need," said E4E Relief CEO Holly Welch Stubbing. "We are honored to be recognized by CAF America for this award and know that employee relief programs increase employee financial and emotional well-being no matter where you live or work."

Emily Cherrington, Acting CEO of The Prince's Foundation, said: "The Prince's Foundation is incredibly honored to have been selected as a recipient of the prestigious CAF America International Philanthropy Award. The charity, of which HRH The Prince of Wales is President, is proud to deliver an increasing amount of impactful charitable activity which changes lives throughout the UK and across the world every year. Our education and training programmes, in particular, benefit more than 15,000 people every year by providing them with the skills, confidence and opportunities needed to succeed, while also helping to preserve important heritage skills and artforms that are at risk of being lost."

CAF America is thrilled to honor E4E Relief and The Prince's Foundation with CAF America Excellence in International Philanthropy Award. We look forward to continuing our partnerships with both organizations.
