MIAMI - May 9, 2019 -- Charities Aid Foundation of America (CAF America), the nation's leader in international grantmaking, today announced the opening of a South Florida operation. Opening in Miami, FL this represents a major strategic expansion for CAF America, headquartered in Washington, DC.

CAF America's growth into Florida marks a major step for CAF America to further expand its footprint offering organizations and corporations trusted and unrivaled giving services across the Southeast, Caribbean, South, and Central America markets.

"Our success over the past several years in Washington has enabled us to expand our scope of services into more strategic geographies" said Ted Hart, CEO of CAF America. "It's particularly encouraging that this expansion is being led by a veteran in profit, not-for-profit and government sectors, like Oliver Ranft, helping to ensure that our current and future client needs are not only met, but their expectations exceeded."

In leading CAF America's Miami operations, Mr. Ranft will play an integral role in enabling the organization to leverage its leadership position within the international charitable giving sector in order to grow its presence in the corporate, private/community foundation and individual giving markets. Mr. Ranft brings a demonstrated track record of entering new industries and broadening/strengthening our organization's relationships with existing and prospective clients. He has 10+ years experience in facilitating global cooperation networks including policymakers, philanthropists, CSR programs and NGOs/nonprofits.

CAF America and Oliver Ranft's offices are at 801 Brickell Ave Suite 900, Miami, FL 33131, call (305) 913-2302 or reach out to Oliver at Oliver@cafamerica.org.
