CAF America President and CEO Named One of 18 Most Powerful Nonprofit Leaders in Virginia

Ted Hart recognized as part of *Virginia Business'*inaugural Power 500 list

Washington, D.C. – November 13, 2020 – CAF America, America's nonprofit leader in international grantmaking with a network of more than 1.8 million charities in 110 countries, today announced its President and CEO Ted Hart has been recognized as one of Virginia's 18 most powerful nonprofit leaders by Virginia 500—The 2020 Power List. Virginia Business considers leadership, influence, community involvement, and promotion of diversity within their sector as factors in selection of its 2020 Power List top leaders.

"Under Ted's leadership, CAF America has significantly transformed and expanded its mission to strengthen the capacity of charities worldwide," said CAF America Board Chair Rob Buchanan. "He has cultivated a diverse team of dedicated professionals and an organizational culture defined by mutual respect and empathy—all while keeping pace with growing demand to fund critical initiatives around the globe. Ted has a great footprint at CAF America, and he certainly belongs in that top tier of nonprofit leaders in Virginia."

Since Hart's 2012 appointment, CAF America has grown 639% and now oversees more than $450 million in annual charitable contributions. From the start of the coronavirus global pandemic, CAF America has facilitated over $59 million in global relief—a CAF America record in global disaster relief giving. "It is truly an honor to be recognized among a group of notable nonprofit and philanthropic leaders, said CAF America President and CEO Ted Hart. "In this ever-evolving and unprecedented time, CAF America holds an important responsibility at the intersection of philanthropic giving and global charities. The recent growth we've witnessed is a testament to the thousands of philanthropists who advised gifts spanning six continents, transforming countless lives and communities. I am grateful for the tremendously talented and committed staff that makes this work possible. They make a difference every single day in determining what CAF America is and what CAF America will be."

With more than 30 years of expertise advising global philanthropy, Hart is also co-editor of CAF America's Cross-Border Giving: A Legal and Practical Guide. He has authored People to People Fundraising, Internet Management for Nonprofits and Fundraising on the Internet and co-authored five other published books on philanthropy. Hart played a critical role in the creation of the Green Nonprofits Movement and was the founder of the International ePhilanthropy Foundation. Hart is a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP®) and an Advanced Certified Fundraising Executive (ACFRE). He is a member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), the Advisors in Philanthropy Foundation, and The Philanthropy Roundtable.
